Michelle A. Jarczewski is an associate attorney at Fausone Bohn, LLP, focusing in the areas of criminal and municipal law for the city of Westland, as well as probate and estate planning. Michelle spent 14 years as an assistant prosecuting attorney for the County of Wayne, and has extensive trial experience, particularly in the areas of child and family abuse.

In 2020, Michelle received a PAAM Prosecution Service Award, and was named Wayne County Amazing Human in December of that year. Michelle is certified to conduct forensic interviews of children and was a member of Wayne County's child abuse multi-disciplinary team from 2019-2021. Michelle graduated from the University of Detroit Mercy, School of Law in 2007. She is currently serving as a board member for Guiding Harbor, a non-profit organization that provides placement and other services for abused and neglected children. She and her husband, David, have been married since 2006 and have 2 daughters together.
